No. 1 LAI, Chi Shing 		Surmounting Challenge, Engaging Community My name is Lai, Chi Shing, Candidate No# 1 of the MCSK Community Centre Advisory Committee Election 2021-22. I have been participating in voluntary service for over 17 years in Caritas, As a member of “Green Walker 綠行谷”, a volunteer group under Caritas MCSK, we focus on Encourage Environmental Conservation and Promoting Green Lifestyle by organizing Eco Tours to the community. I am also a Scout Leader too, details minded, with communication and leadership skills. Luckily, I was elected as the Chairman of the MCSK Community Centre Advisory Committee 2019-2020. Over the past year, Hong Kong is suffering from COVID-19. Change is on all aspects, ways of communication, traveling, learning, etc. Western district had been growth a lot too. I would like to gain your support to run for the re-election. We need to overcome challenges, and stay strong in changes together with our Community Centre. Please vote for No#1 on the MCSK Community Centre Advisory Committee Election 2021-22. Thank you.
No. 2 IP, Wah Tak Walder 		Hi everyone, I am Ip Wah Tak, Walder. It's my great honor to be recommended as a candidate of the Community Center Advisory Committee for this year. During the epidemic, the center not able to hold many activities, however I am still able to contribute my support in volunteering services, by sewing cloth masks for low-income families' children and singleton elderly. At the same time also teach lot of volunteers on sewing technique. In addition, I also help procurement of needed fabrics and materials as well. These services facilitate to the urgent need for mask from the community, reducing their financial burden, and at the same time making use the skills of a group of enthusiastic volunteers. As a member of the Scout Hong Kong Island Region Sea Activities Section, I propose the plan in reorganizing the resources to make it operates more efficiency to the public. If I can be re-elected, I will exploit my experience on research, resource review, organizational analysis, and environmental scanning to understand more the needs from different communities. I will be more proactive in encourage the center to provide innovative activities reaching out for different disadvantaged groups to expand their horizons. Please vote for No.2 Walder Ip.
No. 3 WONG, Ka Mui Maria 		Hello everyone! I am Wong Ka Mui. Maybe not many people in Caritas heard about my full Chinese name but may have heard my English name MARIA before. I was born in the 1950s Hong Kong, graduated from the Literature and History in the Hong Kong College and worked in Hong Kong for nearly 50 years after that. After retiring, I have served as a volunteer in Caritas for more than 10 years. I have been actively participating in various volunteer activities, making good use of my leisure time, and helping each other. I am currently involved in six activities including 3 service groups in Sai Wan Estate, the Elderly Rights Group, the Core Elderly Group, and supporting the Red Cross as well. There are many charitable organizations in Hong Kong, but Caritas' vision of inspiring and giving back to the community is very much in my mind. Therefore, I choose to carry out my social service in Caritas and help more people throughout the process. A volunteer is to help others as the basis of happiness and get joy from the service. Therefore, I decided to further contribute as one of the members in Caritas Community Centre Advisory Committee. I hope you can support me and vote for candidate No.3, MARIA WONG. I'm ready to take up the cause. Thank you very much.

No. 4 CHAN, Sin Mui Marveen 		Hi all! I am candidate No. 4-Marveen Chan. I am a tuition teacher and the Unit Guider of the Brownie of the Hong Kong Girl Guides Association. As the team gather at the center, I have the opportunity to take the team members out to serve the community, and I start to explore and pay attention in the community. I feel honored to be recommended to continue to participate in the election of the Community Center Advisory Committee. In the past, I had the opportunity to attend different activities of the center, which enabled me to have a deeper understanding of the community. In this year, I become more aware that gathering community strength and serving the people are very importance because of the epidemic. I will lead the team members to serve our community as a role model. Please vote for No. 4 Chan Sin Mui, Marveen, thank you all.
No. 5 TSE, Chun Chun Jessica 		Hello everyone! I am Jessica, a mother of a young child and the fifth candidate of the CCAC election. I have participated in the Neighbourhood Kitchen since 2019 and met new friends of similar backgrounds. We're far from being well-off; we live in sub-divided units and it's been a long wait for public housing. Yet we remain passionate about life, devoted to our work and hopeful about the future. I hope we can all stay positive despite the difficulties and trust that the best is yet to come! Living in a sub-divided unit myself, I care for the welfare of other tenants. I aspire to improve the living quality of those in a similar situation by serving as a committee member and making their voices heard. Let's make it happen together!
No. 6 LAU, Wing Yee Miranda 		Please Vote for No.6 Hello, I am Miranda Lau. Since my retirement, I have joined the volunteer services in Caritas Mok Cheung Sui Kun Community Centre for six years. Engaging in the Environmental Protection Group, we organized community workshops, promotional stations and also Free Secondhand Exchange programmes. I have also participated in different community programmes / projects like Neighbourhood Care Scheme for Elderly Carers, and in caring of the children and elderly during the programmes. During the epidemic, I have joined with other volunteers to produce reusable face masks to support the needy in our community. I would like to work with all of you to keep the Caritas Community Centre in improving the Environment, Social and Governance to achieve the sustainable development. Thank you.
